Sights of South West England

Day 1 – After arriving at Gatwick Airport by noon, our journey starts with a visit to Denbie's Wine Estate where we will have a guided tour and lunch. We continue through the cosy villages of southern England and reach our destination, Bath. Upon arrival to the famous Roman city, we do a short guided bus tour before being dropped off at the hotel. Some free time in the afternoon, before our evening dinner.

Day 2 – The day begins with breakfast in the hotel, followed by a guided walk in Bath. We visit The Roman Baths followed by lunch, before departure towards Newquay, where we will have dinner together and stay for the next three nights.

Day 3 – After an English breakfast, we board the coach for a full day excursion in beautiful Cornwall. We will visit St Ives and Penzance, and of course enjoy the views of England's most south westerly point, Land's End. The famous Minack Theatre will be admired and we will also stop at one of Cornwall's fine wineries.

Day 4 – Another full-day excursion starts with visiting the mesmerizing Eden Project. Some free time will be given to grab lunch in cosy Fowey, where you can stroll along the quaint shops and alleyways. The afternoon is spent visiting the mystical Lost Gardens of Heligan. If time and weather permits, we will also try to visit the coastal town of Charlestown.

Day 5 – Today's trip ventures along the beautiful coastal road from Newquay to Padstow. We will have some free time to stroll around before it's time for lunch in one of the celebrity chef Rick Stein's restaurants. We then proceed our journey to Lanhydrock Estate and its beautiful garden.

Day 6 – After breakfast, we leave Cornwall and head towards Bournemouth, which will be our base for the last night. On the way there, we will visit The Garden House and drive through Dartmoor National Park, with a stop for lunch in Princetown.

Day 7 – The journey's last day is devoted to visiting one of the area's famous cathedrals, Salisbury or Winchester. We will also have some time on our own for lunch or maybe some last minute shopping. Time to head towards Gatwick, with a tour through the beautiful New Forest National Park, before our return flight home.
